Hoppin' Down the Bunny Trail at Kirby Pines

Happy Easter! Peter Cottontail has certainly been busy around Kirby Pines this year. The early timing of Easter this year has not stopped him from ensuring that spring flowers are in bloom throughout the community. Our annual Easter Egg Hunt should be filled with the laughter and excitement of grandchildren, great grandchildren and even a few great, great grandchildren as they collect the hidden treasures Peter has left for them. Hopefully, you have helped him along the way by dyeing a few Easter eggs yourself.

Not to be out-done by the Easter Bunny, our culinary team is planning a wonderful Easter Brunch. Of course, your family and friends are welcome to join you for Easter brunch. Simply call Victor Hamilton to make a reservation. I am sure they'll enjoy the food and company. Who knows,

Peter Cottontail may even leave them a hidden surprise to remind your guests of how special Kirby Pines truly is to everyone.

Now is the time to don your Easter bonnet, put on your best duds, and enjoy the sunshine and spring flowers around the community. Just be sure to watch out for Peter Cottontail as you go about your business. After all, you don't want to startle him or he might not leave you that special chocolate egg. Happy Easter!

ON THE PINECONE COVER

Kirby Pines Goes To The Racetrack

A special thanks goes out this month to our adventurous residents, who were willing to suit up and squeeze into the passenger seat of a NASCAR Nationwide and Cup Style racecar and take a few spins around the track.

The front cover features new residents, Jim and Shirley Anderson, and on the back is, resident, Pat Watson. All three, as well as resident, Glenn Wall, traveled at speeds up to 121 miles per hour for 3 laps at the Memphis International Raceway on their 3/4 mile oval track in Millington.

Everyone who came out had a great time! (See additional story on page 8)

Janice Collier

A native Memphian, Janice comes to Kirby Pines from her previous home in Bartlett. For 14 years she was an insurance clerk at the Golden Security Life Insurance Company. She also was employed for 14 years as a teacher at the Kindercare Learning Center.

Her interests include listening to music and watching NASCAR on TV. She's an avid basketball fan, watching the University of Memphis Tigers, the Grizzlies, and the Tennessee Vols. Music favorites include old songs, country, and soft ballads. She's a fan of Elvis Presley and NASCAR driver, Dale Earnhardt, Jr. She counts her visit to Graceland and touring the Lisa Marie airplane as one of her most interesting experiences, as was visiting California to tour Disneyland and San Diego. Hawaii is the one place she would like to visit.

Favored times include shopping with family and friends, and family get-togethers and outings.

We are pleased that Janice has selected our retirement community, and we wish her many good years of living at Kirby Pines and participating in volunteer opportunities. Welcome, Janice.

Linda Eason

Kirby Pines welcomes Linda Eason from her previous home in Germantown. She and her husband, Leslie, were married 41 years and have 4 children and 6 grandchildren. Leslie was a physician who graduated from University of Tennessee. After a stint in the U.S. Air Force, he practiced medicine in Paris, TN. Leslie passed away in 1997.

Linda graduated with a BS in Nursing from the University of Tennessee College of Nursing. Her career as a Public Health Nurse was with the Memphis and Shelby County Public Health Department. Her interests include the Memphis Tigers football and basketball teams, movies, and music such as classical, Southern gospel, and religious hymns. Favorite memories are the times she and her husband took their motor home to the Tigers' games to tailgate with friends.

In addition to foreign travel to London, Paris, Rome, Vienna and Budapest, other places visited include New York City, Chicago, and the West Coast. Linda values the fellowship available to her in Community Bible Study, Truth Seeker Fellowship, and regular attendance at her church.

Let's give Linda a warm welcome to the Kirby Pines Residential Community Fellowship. She will easily find her niche with like-minded residents, and has much to offer our volunteer outreach efforts.

Iris Emery

New resident, Iris Emery, joins us from her previous residence in Jackson, TN. She and her husband, William (Bill) were married 52 years. Before he passed away in 2011, Bill was retired military, serving in the Marine Corps as a Master Gunnery Sergeant. Their family consists of a son and a daughter plus 2 granddaughters both of whom, she tells us, are beautiful and brilliant.

Iris graduated from the UT Chattanooga/Erlanger Hospital in 1956, spending the next 47 years as a Registered Nurse. Her final position before retirement was Director of Quality Assurance at Entendicare Home Health Agency, which she and Bill owned.

Iris' interests include travel, citing Ellis Island as one of the most interesting and fantastic places she visited. Other interests include theater (especially, Broadway plays), reading, yoga, and socializing. While living in Jackson, Iris belonged to the Jackson Book Club; she volunteered at the Kirkland Cancer Center, and for Hospice Care. She has joined the Kirby Pines Book Club. She sees herself as a very positive, giving person who hopes to be remembered as one who valued her friends and acquaintances in all of the places that she has lived and worked.

Defining life in a retirement community as a sedentary existence is not what Iris is "all about". Our community welcomes her with open arms.

Walk Across America Success! WE MADE IT!

This year's participants in Walk Across America Program reached their goal to the Most Southern Point in the continental US. We traveled from the most Northeastern town in the US, Caribou, Maine to Boston, Massachusetts to New York City to Washington DC to Raleigh, NC to Columbia, SC to Jacksonville, Florida and finished at the end of Route 1 in Key West, Florida. We didn't get out of the record-breaking snow in the Northeast until we crossed into Florida.

Our Grand Prize Winner of the dinner-for-two at the next Exquisite Cuisine is Fran Gentry with 182 miles. Pat Mitchell and Gene Wainscott were toe-to-toe for second and third places with 139 and 138 miles respectively.

Thanks to everyone who shared their miles and steps to make this program a great success this year. If you are interested in how many miles you went, just ask Mary Hand; and you will be amazed!

TAKE A RIDE ON THE NUSTEP

Have you visited the Oasis recently? Exercise has been proven to improve physical and emotional health for people of all ages.

The most popular piece of equipment in the Oasis is called NuStep; the sitting position minimizes joint stress and lower back pain. This equipment promotes a natural walking motion while eliminating impact and stress on joints. It's easy to operate and adjust to your specific height, weight, and level of endurance. You can keep track of your time while it automatically calculates your steps and calories burned. The newest model even checks you pulse. The NuStep is great for helping you lose weight and improve your strength and endurance in your arms and legs. We have three NuSteps (one is brand new and one recently refurbished.)

We make appointments with the doctors, our hairdresser and lunch with friends. Why not schedule a visit to the Oasis 2-3 times a week. This is a great place to start an exercise routine. Prove to yourself that moderate exercise improves your health and well being. Mary Hand is in the Oasis Monday – Thursday from 8 am to noon to assist you with the equipment and help you with your exercise program.

Pain management is not something we tend to find important, but, believe it or not, it is! This month we will be taking a deeper look into the ways we are able to assess and treat pain. We will discuss the differences between chronic and acute pain, while also discussing ways to treat/deal with both.

Chronic pain is a bit more common; with there being over 50 million cases of chronic pain in the United States, we do find it extremely vital to spotlight attention in this area. Chronic pain depletes neurotransmitters such as norepinephrine and serotonin, which can lead to many other disorders. If we are able to target the pain that one is experiencing and address it, that individual is less likely to suffer from disorders that affect cognitive abilities.

To learn more about chronic and acute pain, and also to learn some ways to assess and treat both, please join us on April 13th in the LCR at 10:30am. Allyson Boykin, our Wellness Coordinator will be presenting this information to you all. We look forward to seeing each of you there!

A BEAUTIFUL SOUL

Where to start and what should be said first, in telling a life story? The opportunity to put into words a person's past and present is golden because it shapes the reader's understanding – of better knowing the individual, in a certain sense. So it is with this story of Shirley Lynn. We begin with her heart-felt tribute to her aged Mother, Hazel Lee Gupton. Hazel Gupton's final years were fraught with limitations and it was painful to watch the gradual decline. Shirley wrote about a special dress and ornamental pin she bought for her Mother; and the special occasions when that dress and pin wrapped the Mother in special memories. The final wearing was when her Mother passed away. Her tribute to her Mother exemplified the love and thoughtfulness that were evident in Shirley's call to the ministry and her life's work.

Shirley was one of 3 children of Hazel and Eulice Gupton. Her Dad was a Chiropractor; Mom a homemaker. When she was 14 years old, Shirley met and "fell for" her future husband, Charles Lynn, at church. Possibly, though, what also caught her eye was Charles' 1949 black Chevrolet convertible. When Shirley was 16 and Charles was 21, they eloped. They had 2 sons, Charles, Jr. and William. As the years passed, their family grew to include 3 grandsons and a granddaughter.

Charles Lynn became an ordained Minister in the Methodist Church, and their growing family adhered to the Methodist system of belief. He passed away in 1972. Shirley attended Memphis State University, graduating with a Bachelor of Professional Studies, majoring in journalism. She then received a MA Degree in Theology from Emory University in Atlanta, and became an ordained Minister in the United Methodist Church; she served as a staff Minister of the Christ United Methodist Church. Shirley joined the Kirby Pines Retirement Community in 2013 when she retired from active ministry. Her ministry continues, however, in visiting Kirby Pines residents who are members of the Christ United Methodist Church as well as those members who are in the Kirby Pines Nursing Facilities.

The heart-felt love and admiration expressed for her Mother is now shared with other infirmed ones who thrive under her careful and caring eye. Love never dies. Shirley has shown this to be so.

Resident*

The Jewel Colored Dress

Easter is permanent! proclaims tiny chick pinned to mom's dress
by Shirley Lynn

When I saw it on the rack in Memphis, I knew she had to have it. The dress was bright with jewel tones of blue, green and purple, a size four. She had been a robust woman, but Parkinson's disease was swiftly taking her body away.

The first time she wore the dress was in the fall. I stayed with her in Paducah while I preached a revival at her home church 25 miles away.

She could barely walk unassisted. I helped her put on the jewel-colored dress because she couldn't always get her arms into the sleeves now. The ride was difficult for her, but I was preaching and she had to go.

She sat attentively in the pew before me, her beautiful face set off by the jewel-colored dress. Her eyes were full of pride in me, and my heart was full of gratitude for her. Who could love you like that except your mother?

The next time she wore the jewel-colored dress was at Easter. We brought her from the nursing home to my house for the day.

That December she had become too frail to live alone, and I moved her to Memphis. Having to uproot her at 82 was almost more than I could bear. But she bore it like a soldier, just as she had borne the suicide of her 42-year-old daughter, the death of her only son at 39, and five years of nursing Daddy through terminal cancer.

But now it was Easter Sunday, and she had asked to wear the jewel-colored dress. She had tolerated the tugging as nursing home attendants dressed her, gamely tried to walk while her grandson carried her into the house.

Inside, we gave her kisses and gifts, one a plastic Easter pin for fun. When the string was pulled, a bright yellow chick popped out of the pink egg. She was delighted and wanted me to pin it on the jewel-colored dress. I did.

The next time she wore the jewel-colored dress was for her burial in November. I took it from the closet for the last time the night she died. I caressed the tiny dress, the jewel colors, dimming through my tears.

How lonely I will be without her, I told God. How can I go on without her love?

And then I saw it. Still pinned to the dress was the plastic Easter egg. I pulled the string. The little chick popped brightly out of the egg. Of course, I am not without her! Easter is permanent. And even now she sits among her loved ones, adorned forever in the jewel-colored dress of God's love.

KIRBY PINES STARTS THEIR ENGINES!

If you think shuffleboard, bingo or a leisurely stroll are retirement activities at Kirby Pines, think again! On Saturday, March 21st, a group of residents from Kirby Pines Retirement Community decided to live life in the fast lane at the Rusty Wallace Racing Experience in Millington.

While they didn't quite "shake and bake", residents suited up and went for a 3-lap spin around the track at speeds up to 121 miles per hour.

"Our seniors are always willing to try a new experience," said Kirby Pines activity director Cheryl Grimes. Resident, Pat Watson simply stated, "It sounded like something exciting to do, and at our age, we need all the excitement we can get!"

One special resident is no stranger to thrill seeking. Former Army jumper and former Shelby County Schools Superintendent, Jim Anderson, was more than prepared for the day. When asked how he thought going 121 miles per hour would compare to being superintendent he noted, "Well, obviously there's some stress."

Both Action News 5 and Local 24 Memphis came out and covered the excitement at Memphis International Raceway and featured the story on their nightly news broadcast. If you missed them, both can be viewed on our website: www.kirbypines.com on the NEWS & EVENTS page or find them on the Kirby Pines Facebook Page.

THE GREATEST VICTORY

On June 18, 1815, at Waterloo, a small town near Brussels, Belgium, two armies fought fiercely in a battle that would shape history. French forces under Napoleon Bonaparte attacked the allied forces of Belgium, Britain, Hanover and the Netherlands under the command of England's Duke of Wellington.

The opposing armies were nearly equal in number, though Napoleon had superior artillery and cavalry. Because of heavy rains the day before, Napoleon delayed his attack until noon. This gave time for Prussian soldiers to arrive to reinforce Wellington.

People in England were eagerly awaiting news of the outcome of this momentous battle. The message came by signal across the English channel, one letter at a time. "W-E-L-L-I-N-G-T-O-N D-E-F-E-A-T-E-D." Then a thick fog closed in and nothing more could be seen. Throughout England everyone was devastated at the thought their great Wellington had lost.

Then the fog lifted and the message came again. "W-E-L-L-I-N-G-T-O-N D-E-F-E-A-T-E-D T-H-E E-N-E-M-Y." Church bells rang and people rejoiced as news of the victory spread.

A similar thing happened 20 Centuries ago. On a scull-shaped hill called Calvary, Jesus was crucified and died. Taken from the cross, He was buried in Joseph's cave tomb nearby. With a heavy stone rolled over the entrance and Roman guards blocking any intrusion, a sad message spread everywhere.

"J-E-S-U-S D-E-F-E-A-T-E-D." The confusion was thicker than the fog that spread over the English channel. Gloom was the prevalent feeling. How could this have happened? Jesus had been so special, and had promised so much! Friday turned to Saturday. And then came Sunday. Another message was spelled out. J-E-S-U-S D-E-F-E-A-T-E-D T-H-E E-N-E-M-Y." First His disciples, and then hundreds of others saw Him alive again. The darkness of defeat was illuminated by the brilliance of the Resurrection.

Christ Jesus is Risen. He is not the vanquished but the Victor. He who was condemned is the Conqueror. Out of the gore of the cross came the Glory of the Risen Redeemer. All that would have come against us, came against Him. And He won! Forever He has won! The real message of this time is: "J-E-S-U-S D-E-F-E-A-T-E-D T-H-E E-N-E-M-Y."

From the Garden of Eden long, long ago where Paradise was lost, to the Garden of Gethsemane where Jesus prayed "Not My will, but Yours be done", then on to Golgotha and the empty tomb, Paradise was regained, mankind was redeemed, victory was won!

Christ's Resurrection, though not believed by many, is the most well documented event of history. His promises were kept! His power was demonstratively shown! And because of His great victory we can live victoriously each day. Christ lives to live in us. It's a spiritual but wondrously personal reality. As scripture says, "The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God. He gives us victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore my beloved brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain."

- I Corinthians 15:56-58

SHALL WE DANCE

Saturday, April 4
at 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.
(2004) Cast: Richard Gere,

Jennifer Lopez, Susan Sarandon

Shall We Dance revolves around John Clark, a workaholic Chicago lawyer who is unable to shake the feeling that something in his life is missing. On a whim, John disrupts his normal evening commute to attend a dance class in hopes of meeting Paulina, a beautiful dance teacher he would see gazing out of the studio windows. Though Paulina quickly lays to rest any preconceived romantic notions John may have had about her, she nonetheless forms a bond with him that goes beyond those normally held by a teacher and student. Invigorated with his new hobby, John focuses his newfound enthusiasm into training for an upcoming dance competition; however, he chooses not to let his wife in on his plans. John's wife becomes suspicious of all the time he spends away from home and hires a private investigator to find out whether or not her husband is having an affair. Ultimately, John is forced to examine how his old dreams fit in to his new life.
